Volume 23 Edition 5

The Monthly Rag of the Kings River Regulators

Stogie Johnson, Editor

Why did the cowboy adopt a dachshund?
He wanted to get a long little doggy.

Now Here's History For You

Check out this KRR scoresheet from 1999. There's a few familiar names on it – Snakebite, Tucson Smith, Justice Loving. Take a look at how long the stages took!! 70, 80, even 90 seconds was normal. My how our sport has changed... Top Shooter Tom Doodley Squat was the EOT Duelist World Champion that year.

In the Noose

Everyone was safe this month from being put in The Noose this month since I couldn't make the October match. Fear not, however, and get ready because I'll be back stalking some unsuspecting cowpoke next month!

October Shoot: The weather is good and the shootin' was better!

+++++

Although I was not able to attend I know that it was a great shoot with Rusty Shotgun taking top honors on both Saturday and Sunday. Way to go Rusty!!

+++++

The couple that shoots together...

Now here's a trio of desperados

Now you see this hand Dusty? This is the hand that's gonna smack you... 😊

At the loading table on Sunday Shephard Book asked Tall Tale Todd, "What kind of deal did you make with the devil to have such a great match?" "I sold Red Dead Rob's soul" was the reply, to which Shephard responded, "I didn't know Rob's soul was worth that much". Ouch!! 😊
