SPECIAL EDITION FORT MILLER 2003

What Was Lost is Now Found

Portagee Phillips found his gun. It was not taken, just misplaced.

Any of you cowboys who put money in the hat, to go to Portagee to replace his gun, can request a refund by contacting Cole Chance (559) 673-7416 by November 1, 2003.

All money remaining in the fund on November 1, will be donated to the SASS scholarship fund in the name of the Fort Miller 2003 shooters.

We really appreciate the spirit in which the money was donated. Cowboys are always willing to jump in and help.

Fort Miller 2003

By: Cole Chance

The big shootout for the year has come and gone. This was the King's River Regulators' 8th annual Fort Miller Shootout. The shooters that showed up hopefully had a good time. Those that couldn't make it missed out. I would like to thank all those club members that came out and helped set up the match, be posse leaders, and do all those jobs that are required to put on a match of this size. A match of this size takes a whole lot of work and people willing to do the work. No one person can do it all. You cowboys and cowgirls that helped out are the very best. Thank you!

One very special volunteer was our new Junior shooter Four Eyed Zach's grandpa, Eddie "The Ice-man" Anderson. This man kept us all in ice and cold water during the shoot. Eddie, thank you very much for your hard work. Good job, cowboy!

Now for some bad news. On September 21st, Beanpot, our friend and founding KRR member, passed away. Beanpot was in the VA Hospital in Missouri when he passed, and at this time I have no knowledge of any local services. If I hear anything, I will personally call all members with any information. Beanpot has been a good member of the club from the very beginning and was always willing to lend a hand. Whenever I asked him for help, such as cooking for the work days, he always said "I'll be there Cole". He was a true character, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I'm betting right now our friends and shooting pards, Beanpot and Shorty are up there at that big cowboy range in the sky, just a laughing and shooting some targets. Maybe even having an adult beverage or two when the guns are put away.

SHOOTING STARTS

Crazy Woman Ranch—run by our own Fine-gold Floozy set up shop at Fort Miller. She had a great selection of cowboy and western decorating items. Nice change of pace, something for the ladies. Thanks for coming.

Terrible Ted had to kiss the ass after he DQ'd on bay 8. It was his first stage DQ, you can bet he'll be more careful from now on.

Big Weekend for Young Shooter

KRR Territorial Governor, Snakebite, presented Sasparilla Kid with his SASS Life Membership Badge. His Dad, Hardpan Curmudgeon, gave him a new 20 Gauge shotgun. He looks mighty pleased with both.

Plainsman Event

Here's Shiloh making his way through the course. Got through without needing oxygen.

- 1 st Snakebite
- 2 nd Deadly Tedley
- 3 rd Chama Bill

A Long Way To Go

Fighting Eagle (on the left) was out visiting family from Indiana and came up to shoot Fort Miller. He's a real hard working posse member. Just happened to get him taking a breather here.

A Natural Born Sales-woman

I'm sure you noticed Swanee Rivers at some time this weekend. She was the little lady selling you all those raffle tickets. She should be selling cars, she'd be rich by now.

Raffle Winners

T. O. Slo—Gun Safe
 Deadly Tedley —550 Dillon Press
 Quicksilver Slim—410 Shotgun
 Deadly Tedley —20 GA shotgun
(Deadly had donated the gun, so he turned it back to be auctioned and Hardpan bought it for his son Sasparilla Kid)

ROUND THE CORRAL

By: Ruthless Ruth

Well Fort Miller has come and gone , and a whole lot of people worked real hard to make it happen.

Cole Chance designed the stages.

Jessie Montana got all the posse's together, so people who wanted to shoot together could.

Doc James, Terrible Ted and I, got all the name badges made.

Bootjack Belle, Miss Charm'n Charlene, Lady J, Frisco Frankie, Flop House Floozie, Ma Steele, Swanee Rivers, Diane Fox and her granddaughter Deanna put together a great lunch. Not one of these ladies are shooters, but they are all willing workers. They can always be counted on to keep score, help count or do anything that needs to be done at both annual and monthly matches. Thanks ladies for all you did.

Thanks also to Swanee Rivers, who did a bang up job of selling raf-fle tickets, just like she does every year.

Thanks goes to our cart driver, Scott Robb, who gave each of us a ride down the rails. Good looking fellow ain't he. Did I forget to mention he's my son?

And last but now least, thanks to Longbranch, Major Gregor, Hell-fire Hank, Blackie, Miss Kitty and the rest of the Civil War re-enactors for presenting the colors and getting the day off to a bang (literally with the canon) on Saturday.

Joaquin Rivers told Mudhen Millie to just shoot the rifle as fast as she could in the ore cart. So she did. Unfortunately, she forgot to pull the trigger between that lighting levering!

Payback Princess should get the perseverance award for Bay 8. She shot 19 shotgun rounds. But she cleaned the stage—and had one round left to boot.

Major Gregor also deserves some kind of award—he shot all day Saturday in the blazing heat in those wool uni-form pants and knee high Wellingtons!

Seems someone tried to pull a fast one on Squeaky in the jail by turning the dummy around so the log was at the top and the head was at the bottom. Won't mention any names, but his initials are Jim Jivitis.

Hear Ida Mistum's looking for a new reloader. Seems she had 3 squibs Saturday.

Thanks to Judge and Ma Steele for fixing the hotdogs and cold drinks at the long range. Sure hit the spot.

We only had one shooter who cleaned the whole match, Peaceful, good shootin' pard.

I'm so tired I could sleep for a week, but I sure had me a good time. Thanks to everyone who joined us and helped make the weekend a good one.

See ya' next year!!!

Thanks to Jessie Montana for her contributions to this column.

Dog Face

It is with Sadness that the KRR says good-bye to one of it's founding members.

Alias "Beanpot"

Beanpot passed away on Sunday Sept. 21

The newsletter in October will be dedicated to Beanpot. If you have a special story or remembrance of Beanpot, please get it to me sometime between now and October, so I can included it in the paper.
