After the match a few of the boys took the Match Director, Justice Loving, over to the jail to show him how they felt about the shoot. It was all in fun though, he survived.

A Hangin At KRR

By. Cole Chance

Shooters - it finally happened! We finally hung us a Match Director! All these years we've talked about it. Well, we've finally done the dastardly deed. Some say it couldn't happen to a nicer cowboy. This month's Match Director was Justice Loving. He took over at the last minute to put on the match. All kidding aside, this was really a good match. I truly believe everyone loved the stage in Bay 7. It took a little extra time to do, but I heard nothing but great comments about how much fun it was. It's been a long time since we've seen those darn snakes and some of those other tough targets. The rest of the match was well written, well done, and had some interesting catches. No cowboy out there is a better sport with all the kidding and fun we pointed at him. Justice Loving - Good Job Cowboy!

Unless you were a duck and loved the rainy weather, Saturday didn't work out for a long-range event. Way too much wind and rain and not enough sunshine. This event will be rescheduled for Saturday April 19. Same schedule - soon as the match is set up, we will go over the hill and shoot long-range.

Volunteers needed for Saturday, April 12 for the 4-H Kids Day Shoot. Many of you know that every year we provide a stage for the young people to shoot. We need lever action 22 rifles and double barrel 12 or 20 gauge shotguns for the shooters on our stage. KRR will furnish the ammo. If you can help on this day, please contact me. We will need lots of volunteers to run the event.

Those of you who have helped with this before know that it is a lot of fun and very rewarding to see these young people's interest in the shooting sports.

If you want to come out and help, you will be welcome. Please wear your cowboy gear. Just remember, the future of our sport, and all shooting sports, lies with these young people. If we don't encourage their involvement, who will?

A big thanks goes to Terrible Ted, Sierra and Ruthless Ruth for their help in putting up the new fence. Not only does it look good, but it helps break the wind coming up over the hill.

There are plans to build a sun shade along a portion of the fence, which will give us a nice place for shooters meetings and vendors.

Start getting ready for a big work party the 26th of April. There's lots of work to be done. I'll have more details in the April newsletter, but be sure to keep that date open.

I want to thank everyone for attending the March shoot, and I hope you enjoyed the stages. I realize that stage 4 was a tad long (OK, very long) but hopefully the laughter I heard coming from the "My Little Buttercup" stage made up for it.

A big Cowboy THANKS TO Geo Kid, Joaquin Rivers, Michigan Bob and Slick Rock Rooster for being posse leaders. Also, I sure am glad some of our new friends from 5 Dogs made it up this month. I tell ya, you guys (and gals) sure are fun to shoot with!! Looking forward to shooting again with you in Bakersfield next month.

ROUND THE CORRAL

By: Ruthless Ruth

The theme for Sundays match was the movie "The Three Amigos", and it made for some really interesting stages. The match director, Justice Loving, really looked the part in his gaucho outfit. That wool cape and black hat looked pretty sharp.

Stage two at the mine shaft saw a lot of improv from the singers of "My little buttercup has the sweetest smile". The words got changed around, some shooters merely spoke the words, Mescalero not only sang, he kissed the timer, Joaquin Rivers. Remedy Jack put a little dance with the song. I hear tell that Jessie Montana gave a fine operatic rendition. Seems more than a few got into the spirit on that stage. Sierra took one look at the targets and said "give me the P and I'll just shoot it anyway I want.

Now about the mine field on stage 4. What a blast, and I do mean blast, I went through a whole box of shotgun shells and still didn't get that big red cowboy down. Forgot to take extra rifle ammo to the line.

Hoss was seen throwing rocks at that big bad boy while Little Gunner was shooting. She didn't seem to mind though, she was having a hard time getting him to go down. Took Hoss 3 rocks to get him down. Someone said he was better with the rocks than with his gun.

Only 1 shooter cleaned the match Deadly Tedley. Good job.

Michigan Bob's been practicing. Finished 4th overall, nice job.

See ya all next month
