Mother Nature Shines on Nine Lives Parade

by Slick Rock Rooster, Mayor

Despite all of the weatherman's threats, this Sunday at the range blessed us with a beautiful, partly cloudy day. Ruthless Ruth's daffodils are blooming, adding some great color to the Fort Miller grounds. Match director Nine Lives set up a great match with lots of extra fun for those that like to shoot their shotguns at moving and flying targets. We had Valentine's Day in our minds as we had a few lines to say with heart warming thoughts. Nine Lives did a fantastic job of coming up with five stages of about equal length. They had lots of movement and choices of direction on target sweeps. Great job, Nine Lives! Posse leaders were Ramrod and Hawkeye O'Riley who guided the shooters through the course of fire. Great job, Cowboys.

The mayor had his troubles today with a little bit of everything but gun problems. His new shotgun loads just would not take down some of the knockdown targets. Back to the reloading bench for further development. Primers only work once and only if they are seated properly. A minor safety for not properly restaging a rifle and an ejected round did not help matters.

Judge Jeremiah Steele needs to penalize himself for partying too hard Saturday evening to the extent he was not able to join us for a day of listening to a whole lot of gunfire. Sierra our blacksmith is earning a new alias, maybe Hipshot Shotgun Tom would be appropriate. He was blasting all of the shotgun targets and shooting from the hip with his pistols. Longbranch was laughing so hard he could hardly handle the timer.

Longbranch was overall match winner with a clean match. Little Fawn was runner-up. Great job cowboys and cowgirls.

New shooters Smokie Irons and Andy Laredo shot well and said they had a great time. Much thanks to Michigan Bob for his assistance to the new shooters. Greezy McNasty and his wife Madam Yaya came down from Manteca on their way to Arizona and spent the day shooting with us. They said they will be back for more fun.

Next month's match is being designed by Junebug McCaffrey. She told me that she is doing it from a women's point of view. I'm not sure what that is. She is working closely with Ramrod and Fannie Mostly.

After next month's match setup the Sillouette Club is hosting a long range shoot with pigs, rams and buffalo. All cowboys are invited to shoot contact Fargo, for more details.

There'll be a work party the end of March sometime to work on extending the corral - stay tuned for the date.

Message from next month's match director, Junebug McCaffrey:

Thank you to everyone in this club who has been so kind, patient, and encouraging - you have made this sport so much fun to learn. I really appreciate how patient and helpful the RO's have been. So many of you have taught me to shoot and take care of the equipment, worked on my firearms, taught me how to shoot stages, prepare, count, keep score, and prepare stages. I do truly appreciate these kindnesses. You certainly show true cowboy and cowgirl spirit. I have been working on organizing the March match and hope to see you all there. I promise you a fun match, and a match from a cowgirl's point of view.

Fort Miller

Howdy all,

I was looking back over the newsletters from the past. It's quite a journey of the mind when one can relate to every single item mentioned in them. The fun times abound in memories. One thing in particular that I noticed was the various articles written about our annual Fort Miller Match. They all expounded on the wonderful time everyone had, and thanked everyone for their help and such. I looked around a bit more and found some of the scores from the Fort Miller matches. They revealed a great group of friends, both old and new that had participated in our event. Some had come a far piece to share the good times at Fort Miller. In fact, the majority had come from other places! Where were our KRR members? Then I started noticing a repeated and familiar message that ran through many of the pre- and post-Fort Miller news letters. It addressed the FACT that the majority of our own members just don't participate in our crown event....the Fort Miller Shootout. The "why" of it has been asked time and again with no real answer being found. For me, I just can't understand why more of our members don't come out and shoot our biggest and most fun match of the year. I know that it costs more than a monthly shoot which, by the way, is one of the cheapest around. The cost of the Fort Miller Shootout is way good when compared with other annual matches, and it is indeed one of the best annual matches anywhere. Believe me, I attend many of them.

Kings River Regulators, it is time to "ride for the brand," and support your club. The turnout for last year's Fort Miller was off by a significant amount. That cannot happen again this year. Our annual match is our money-maker for the year and it deserves the support of all club members. Judge Roy Bean, SASS #1 commented to me at this year's Summit about the good time he had when he attended Fort Miller. He added that the small annual matches like ours were what SASS is all about. I know it is early, but start making your plans now to attend Fort Miller. You will not only have a good time, but you will help to make sure that when you drive out to the range on the 3rd Sunday that there will be a Cowboy shoot going on. Things don't "just happen" - folks make them happen.

A COMPLETE JOHN WAYNE FILMOGRAPHY

(PART 2 – 1941-1976)

Spouse : Pilar Wayne - November 1, 1954-June 11, 1979 (his death) 3 children (Aissa, Ethan, Marisa)
 Esperanza Baur – January 17, 1946-November 1, 1954 (divorced)
 Josephine Alicia Saenz – June 24 1933-December 25, 1945 (divorced) 4 children (Michael, Patrick, Toni, Melinda)

Father: Clyde (pharmacist) Mother: Mary

Holds the record for the actor with the most leading parts – 142. In all but 11 films, he played the leading part.

His favorite drink was Sauza Commemorativo Tequila, and often served it with ice that he had chipped from an iceberg during one of his voyages on his yacht, "The Wild Goose."

Childhood pet Airedale dog was source of his nickname "Duke."

Most published sources refer to Wayne's birth name as Marion Michael Morrison. His birth certificate, however, gives his original name as Marion Robert Morrison. According to Wayne's own statements, after the birth of his younger brother in 1911, his parents named the newborn Robert Emmett and changed Wayne's name from Marion Robert to Marion Michael. It has also been suggested by several of his biographers that Wayne's parents actually changed his birth name from Marion Robert to Marion Mitchell. In "Duke: The Life and Times of John Wayne," (1985) Donald Shepherd and Robert Slatzer state that when Wayne's younger brother was born, "the Duke's middle name was changed from Robert to Mitchell. . . . After he gained celebrity, Duke deliberately confused biographers and others by claiming Michael as his middle name, a claim that had no basis in fact."
