October Shoot

The title for this month's shoot should be "The Shootout The Month After". The October shoot always follows our big event and seems so laid back and relaxing. And this month's shoot was exactly that. Sheriff Hawkeye was our Match Director and did an excellent job of putting on the match. Good job Sheriff!

As much as I really enjoy the Fort Miller Shootout, it's nice to relax and just have some good shooting at a monthly match. It was really great of Judge Steele to cook us up some hotdogs for after the match chow. Kind of reminded me of days gone by when we had food at all our monthly matches. I for one would like for that to happen again. Anyone out there willing to take this on? The profit doesn't have to go to KRR. It's not the money, but the service we need. Maybe some enterprising club member could pay for his shooting by providing this service to the club.

Don't forget, November we go to the Winter schedule. Shooter's meeting at 9:30. Don't be late.

Our raffle at the Fort Miller Shootout was a big success and the club owes great big thank yous to Deadly Tedley, The Amigos, and JAX Leather for their generous donations, and to Swanee Rivers for her great job of selling the tickets.

California State Championship's 5 Dogs Creek—Bakersfield California

Don't let the name fool you, it's just a bunch of cowboy getting together to shoot off their guns, tells tall tales and get some good grub.

There was a big bunch of KRR members there, quite a few of them on the posse Ted and I shot with. There was our posse leader Cole Chance, Jessie Montana, Joaquin Rivers, Justice Loving, Sutter Lawman and Leadfoot. We were joined by Mudhen Millie, Calgary Kate, Mescalero, Chama Bill, Sgt. O'Hara, Wichita Lawman, and Dutch Bill. I'm sure we had the best posse there, hard working and fun to shoot with and we all got through stage 4 without a stage DQ (you had to be there to understand).

The shooting was challenging to say the least, weather was great and the food was fantastic. And there was lots of places to go shopping, if you were so inclined, Terrible Ted kept saying he was saving his money to have his Marlin worked on, but I held up the family name quite well.

We had three of our Juniors finish in the top five in their class. J L Hank finished 2nd, Rogan Steele was 4th in Junior Boys and Little Fawn finished 3rd in Junior Girls.

The big cowboys and cowgirls did OK too. Deadly Tedley is the new State Champion in the Duelist class. Snakebite finished 4th and Cole Chance was 5th in the Frontier Cartridge (Black powder) class. Sudden was 2nd in Senior class. And I got third in Senior Ladies (obviously I lied about my age!!).

All in all it was a good weekend. Lot's of shootin', eating and tall tale swapping. There was even a little dancin' Justice Loving and Miss Kitty shake a pretty mean tail on the dance floor.

Leadfoot's either counting or signaling that dinner was OK!!

ROUND THE CORRAL

By: Ruthless Ruth

Jessie Montana gave me this little tid-bit from Fort Miller.

An imaginative shooter who shall remain nameless (Was it the good looking one or the smart one? Sgt. O'Rourke or Sgt. O'Hara) changed the saying on Stage 5 to "Sutter Lawman rides sidesaddle, and he'll never hang me!" The RO, who happened to be the aforementioned Sutter Lawman, almost dropped the timer on that one.

Cole Chance had a real unusual day on Saturday at the California State Championships. On our first stage of the day everyone decided to get our posse's picture taken down on Bay 10. There are Indian drawings on the walls and Indians mounted on horses up on the rim of the wall. Well we all start to line up and ole Cole takes a header off the side of the hill. We all thought he was done for the day, but it didn't seem to hurt his shootin' none. We shot that bay and moved to bay 1.

Now on Bay 1 there were 14 shotgun targets, including a flyer. Cole shoots that smelly ole black powder. To everyone's surprise, most of all Cole's, he started a pretty good little grass fire on the stage. Can't say he don't shoot hot loads.

Made a real good trade with Nine Lives, let him use my corkscrew and he gave me some of the best tasting grapes I've ever had.

Welcome New Members

Major Gregor
Alias: Greg Hand

Hellfire Hank
Alias: Jason Hand

This is the KRR's latest father son team. Besides shooting with us they are also involved in the Civil War re-enactments.

They both came out and helped set up on Saturday, before they even got to shoot. We need more members like this, willing to work before they play.

Didn't hear too much about Major Gregor, but several people on their posse seemed real impressed with Hellfire Hank. Seems like he's a pretty good shot.

Welcome also to Jim Ulrich. He signed up Sunday, but hasn't picked an alias yet. As soon as he does, I'll let you know what it is.

Welcome to the KRR boys,
hope you enjoy your stay.
