WORK PARTY FEB. 9TH 8:00 AM

We'll be putting a roof on the corral, finishing the decking in Bay 1 and doing a little digging while the ground is still soft to plug up the hole by the long range shed. Bring your carpenter tools, ladders, shovels etc. Lunch will be provided for the workers, Judge and Ma Steele are doing the cooking.

New Year 2003
By: Cole Chance

The new year is here and it started off with several hundred bangs and some real smoke. For you smokeless shooters, that's black powder smoke. Kings River Regulators started this year off with Match Director Tucson Smith for the January match. Never seen a Match Director put himself up for so many comments about his character and skill level. This guy can take it! Course if you wear hats like him, you better be ready for some good old fashioned kidding. I would like to thank Tucson for all his patience and hard work on this match. Good job Cowboy!

71 shooters this month. Now that's a BIG crowd! It was really great to see all those lost cowboys and cowgirls that haven't been around for a while. A big KRR Welcome Back Folks! Sure hope this continues and if so, we will probably have to go to 5 posses each month. What this means is those that sign up first will get their choice of posses and those that come later won't get a choice. So if you want to shoot with a particular person, then sign up early. There are always those who have a gang of 5, 6, 7, or more who want to shoot together. If 2 of you get there early and the others get there late, those late-comers will most likely not be able to shoot on the same posse. We aren't going to allow anyone to sign up anyone else until they are there and paid. If you want to pay for your buddies, that's fine - then sign them up. Otherwise, get there early.

Shooters - I would like to remind everyone - run your posse in a timely and no non-sense fashion. Be considerate of the other shooters. Don't make everyone else wait for scoring.

I would like to thank our Territorial Governor Snakebite for putting on the RO Refresher course on Saturday setup day. As always, he did an excellent job. If you weren't there, you missed out.

Knowing and actually following the rules is a very important part of every match, big or small. If your posse doesn't follow the rules, then the scores mean nothing. Don't short change the other shooters, or yourself; by not playing by the rules.

I'd like to thank Ruthless Ruth for designing and making our "Spotter Flags". I think they worked great, and all the comments I got were very positive. There's no question for the RO as to who his spotters are, and it also helps to keep the lookers and bystanders back from the action as they know they don't belong there. Good job Ruth.

Cowboy Shooting For the Generations

The Loving Gang had three generations of shooters, well, participants at Fort Miller yesterday: Deuce Nail, Justice Loving, Buckshot, and Sawdust. My dad Deuce shot his first ever match 2 years ago with the King's River Regulators. After that he looked around for a club to join where he lives up in Sequim Washington. He signed on with the Webfoot Buckaroos (no really, that's their name!) and has enjoyed it ever since. I usually get an email from him after every shoot telling me all about it and how well he did. Buckshot and Sawdust were the number one brass-pickers yesterday. I was very proud of them for doing their part to help. I have really been looking forward to shooting with my dad, and wish that I could do it more often.

January match director and winner of the hat of the month contest.

Yesterday's shoot was yet another example of how the sport of Cowboy Action Shooting brings generations closer together. We all had a great time, and Deuce appreciated the fine hospitality that the King's River Regulators provided. He was also impressed with all of the improvements that have been made on our stages over the last 2 years.

Thanks for a great shoot Tucson, and thank you Cowboy Action Shooting for the chance to enjoy some quality time with my dad.

I love justice, I'm Justice Loving

P.S. Dad's alias comes from his days in the service fighting godless commies. He was a FAC navigator in an O2 (Deuce) and his call sign was "Nail 137" (Nail). Just in case you were wondering!

ROUND THE CORRAL

By: Ruthless Ruth

71 Shooters on a cold in January, and some of them we haven't seen for quite some time. Welcome back to Samurai, Buz-zard, Felix, Charlie One Horse and Riverdale. Come to think of it we haven't seen Lil' Annie in a while either. Hope you all make it out more often this year.

This was the first time as Posse Leaders for Deadly Tedley and Judge Jeremiah Steele. Except for DT being as nervous as a cat on a hot tin roof all went well from what I hear.

Also had a Junior shooter shoot her first match with the KRR, Good going Little Gunner, just keep listening to Grandpa and Grandma they won't lead you wrong. Won't be long before she's giving big sis a run for her money.

Never saw anyone take as much abuse as Tucson Smith did this shoot. People were cussin' him up one side and down the other, nobody would buy him a drink and everyone thought they was better than him. Someone on our posse, on stage 4 said "This is full of poop Tucson" instead of P's. OK so I wasn't listening that good when the directions were read. . Not bad for a first match.

Longbranch had his first Senior Moment on Bay 1, welcome to the club.

Smokem Joe was sporting a pretty new shirt, says he got it for Christmas.

Till next month, keep you powder dry!!
